

COME MEET A MAN

Come meet a man who told me everything I ever did.

He knows my history, my future and my present, all my thoughts, all my deeds, all of me.

Come meet a man who doesn't judge or condemn, He sees my soul, he knows my heart and he shows me love

Come meet a man.

Come meet a friend, who carries me when I am weary and picks me up when I fall.

Who is with me when I need him most and never wanders from my side?

Come meet a friend who laughs with me and cries with me, always believing, always encouraging, always forgiving.

Come meet a friend.

Come meet a King, who reigns supreme, yet who washes my feet

Who created the heavens and the earth, yet counts the very hairs of my head

Come meet a King, for whom the angels bow down, yet who humbled himself even to death

On a cross

Come meet a King.

Come meet a Saviour, who rescued me when I was lost.

Who took my place on a cross and bore my sin on his shoulders .

Come meet a saviour who endured all of the pain for my sake, who died to set me free and restored my soul

Come meet a Saviour

Come meet my Lord, whose love is never failing, constant and unconditional.

Who showers me with blessings, who refreshes and revives my spirit through his grace

Come meet my Lord who is alive and reigns on high, glorious in victory for eternity

Come meet my Lord

Come meet a man who told me everything I ever did, and who loves me just the same.

Who changed my life, brought me peace and gave me hope

Come meet a man whose love cannot be described, cannot be fathomed, cannot be matched who has my heart, my mind my soul, who wants my time, my life, my all.

Come meet this man!
